Concert Setting:

For events other than festivals and concert series with multiple acts, concert style seating is required for a listening room audience. Terri's music is not conducive for background or dinner music. If there's a dance floor, chairs will need to be set up in front of the stage.

Sound and Lights

Terri Hendrix does not travel with a PA System or stage lighting. On parties of 40 or over amplification for the sound is required. This can all be discussed.
